

“IT’S OUR BORDER TOO!” Press Conference and Panel On Immigration Reform

Wednesday, August 16, 2006
6:30 PM

Diocesan Migrant and Refugee Services, Mother Teresa Meeting Room
2400 E. Yandell (between Dallas and Piedras)

Confirmed speakers include: Rev. John Stowe, Diocese of El Paso; Rev. Ed Roden-Lucero, EPISO; Luis Figueroa, MALDEF; Iliana Holguin, Diocesan Migrant and Refugee Services; Ray Ybarra, ACLU; Dr. Josiah Heyman, UTEP; Kathleen Walker, American Immigration Lawyers Association; Sister Lillianne Alam, Las Americas Immigrant Advocacy Center; Ruben Garcia, Annunciation House; Gabby Garcia, Paso del Norte Civil Rights Center, and El Paso Police Chief Richard Wiles.

EPISO, the Catholic Diocese of El Paso, People for the American Way and a coalition of organizations will hold a press conference and panel discussion on August 16th at 6:30 pm at the DMRS in order to include the perspectives and concerns of families who live on the border. IT’S OUR BORDER TOO!

U.S. Rep. Sensenbrenner hosts the Judiciary Committee in El Paso on August 17th. They will discuss the financial impact of immigration and a border wall. Public comment will not be allowed.

For more information, call EPISO at 915-778-3200.

EPiSO

El Paso Interreligious Sponsoring Organization
Part of the IAF Southwest Network of Organizations
7134 Alameda Ave. El Paso, TX 79915
(915) 778-3200 FAX (915) 778-9730

Catholic Diocese of El Paso

AILA

ACLU

